2009 ZBOP Gala Silent Auction Rules

1. Have fun and support the students and their musical achievements with your bidding.
2. The Silent Auction will be open for bidding at 5:30 p.m. before the concert and will continue during intermission.
3. No bid will be accepted after the close of intermission.
4. All bidding must be done in writing on the official bid sheets. Signatures on the bid sheet are binding.
5. Minimum bids will be listed on the silent auction bidding form and must be met for the item to be purchased.
6. Successful bidders must pay on the evening of the event. Payment may be made with cash, check or charge card. All sales are final.
7. Payment must be made to the cashier after the concert. You will receive your items at the time of payment.
8. It is the winning bidder's responsibility to make arrangements with the donors. Please contact the donors directly and honor any restrictions and deadlines. Values of the items are the donor's estimate of the fair market value.
9. If the sales amount of the item exceeds the listed value, the difference between the value and the amount paid may be used as a tax deduction by the purchaser as a charitable contribution to ZBOP.
10. ZBOP reserves the right to withdraw any item for sale at any time and to reject any and all bids for any item.
11. All participants agree that ZBOP, its Board or Gala Committee are not accountable for any claims, liability or causes of actions arising from a transaction between a donor and a bidder. In the event of a dispute, an auction official shall act as the final authority and will determine the winning bidder.
